

Financing Your Professional Education

Find Support for Villanova's 100% Online Programs

Students enrolling in Villanova University's professional non-credit certificate courses and programs may be able to take advantage of the following financial benefits: corporate tuition assistance, military benefits, interest-free payment options and Sallie Mae Smart Option Loans®.

Employee Benefits

Your employer may cover some (or all) of the costs for education through tuition assistance programs.

Your benefits may cover costs, fees, books and other materials.

Ask your human resources department, or your supervisor, to determine what educational benefits your company may provide. Here are some things your company may ask for:

- Letter to Supervisor
- Program of Study
- Curriculum
- Program Cost
- Tax Deduction Eligibility*

Your enrollment representative can help you find this information – call 855-300-1473 for any questions.

Depending on the policies governing your company tuition assistance, more options may be available, such as deferred payment for those requiring proof of grades. Please contact an enrollment representative for more information.

*In order to gain tax deduction eligibility, you should speak to a certified tax preparer first.

Flexible Payment Plans

For your convenience, interest-free payment plans are available to help you stay within your budget. Contact an enrollment representative for more information.

Smart Option Loan

Sallie Mae offers a flexible, credit-based loan product to those who qualify. This can help working adults who enroll in an accredited university's distance learning certificate program. For more information on the Sallie Mae Smart Option Loan®, contact Sallie Mae at 855-756-5626 or visit salliemae.com.

Government Savings

All federal, state and local government employees are eligible to save 10% off individual courses. Call 855-300-1473 and identify yourself as a government employee to benefit from these savings.

Military Benefits

You may be able to use your Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) education benefits for Villanova's 100% online non-credit certificate programs, based upon your individual eligibility.

Villanova also offers 15% savings per certificate course to active-duty servicemembers, veterans, Guardsmen, Reservists and their spouses and dependents (upon verification of military status).

This reduction is valid off the standard tuition fee rate of the listed courses offered by Villanova University with online administration by Bisk. This reduction is not stackable with other reductions, and you may not use this reduction in conjunction with other reductions.

Veteran

To apply for benefits:

Provide proof of military service paperwork (DD214).

Check on the status of your VA benefits by contacting the Department of Veterans Affairs at 888-442-4551. You may need to provide dates of service.

Speak to an enrollment representative to discuss program requirements such as online live class sessions, military clock hours and more.

Potential students are encouraged to conduct individual research as benefits will be unique to his/her personal situation.

Servicemember

To apply for benefits:

Provide your current .mil email address for verification.

Speak to an enrollment representative to discuss program requirements such as online live class sessions, military clock hours and more.
